When (approximately) did you become an ANFASA member?

2. THE PROJECT

TITLE OF YOUR BOOK (OR PROVISIONAL TITLE):

In the space below, please write a short description/summary of the book on which you are working. This description/summary should include an outline of the book chapters. (Please submit a page or two of the writing as an additional document.)

3. Can you tell us what motivated you to write this book?

4. Describe your target readership.

5. Do you know of any other books on a topic similar to yours? If so, please name them (you will not be penalised if you do not know any, or even if you know several.)

6. Have any of your books been published? If so, please list them here.

7. Have you already approached a publisher for the book you are writing? If so, please provide details. If not, could you say something about how you envisage your book being published and distributed?

8. We assume that you have already planned your book and have probably started writing.

8.1. When did you start writing?

8.2. How far are you with your writing? (give an approximate word count or number of chapters already drafted)

8.3. When are you hoping to finish?
(writing a book is often a long process; you will not be disqualified for a completion date next year, so please try to be realistic in your estimation)

9. Are you applying for funds for research or writing or both?

10. AGSA writing grants are around R 30 000 but they can vary according to the needs of the applicant. Please say how much money you are applying for and how you will spend it if your application is successful

11. We will not necessarily disqualify an applicant who has also received funds from another source. If you have sought or had funding promised, or received funds from other sources, please indicate below.

12. Finally, please briefly provide any other information about yourself and your writing which you think will be helpful to the Selection Committee in assessing your application.

Declaration: I hereby declare that I have disclosed all the material facts necessary for this application and that all the information provided is true and correct.
